NSS-Spl-Camp-Guidelines

Special Camp provides a unique opportunity to the NSS student youth for group living, mutual understanding, tolerance, cohesion, development of leadership qualities, bringing out the hidden talents of the students, etc. To make constructive use of students' leisure time for community work, these camps may be organized during the vacation i.e. Summer/Winter. During the Special Camp, the students should stay with the communities (Adopted Villages) where they are holding the camps. The duration of a Special Camp is generally Seven days. The following are the broad guidelines to be followed by the NSS Units. These guidelines are discussed under 3 broad heads viz., I) Pre-Camp preparation, II) During Special Camp, and III) Post Special Camp requirements.

1. PRE-CAMP PREPARATION: This phase involves from the submission of camp proposal to the starting day of the camp.

1.1 Submission of Camp Proposal: The LPU-NSS Coordinator or Co coordinator or Volunteer of Units is required to submit the Special Camp proposal at least four weeks in advance so as to ensure the approval of camp well in time. The proposal should be submitted in the prescribed proforma, which is enclosed along with these guidelines (see Annexure-2). The proposal should contain the Sarpanch Consent, Venue Pics, Approx budget, route map and day-wise programme.

1.2 Selection of Proper Project: The selection of proper project for Special Camping programme can boost up the morale of campers and develop in them a sense of achievement. Hence, it is essential that suitable project for the personality development of NSS volunteers must be selected with utmost care by identifying the felt needs of the community. Without participation of local community, the camp has no value. The following should be kept in mind while selecting the project.

- Identifying the felt needs of the community such as health, education, environmental social and economic development of the community.
- Accommodation, water facilities available in the community to the volunteers should be assessed before camp.
- It is essential to make sure of the participation of the community in the projects.
- LPU-NSS Coordinator or Co coordinator or Camp Coordinator of Units is directed to see that the selected projects should be completed within 7 days the camping period of 7 days. If for any reason, the project is not completed in 7 days, the same should be undertaken during the regular activity as a follow-up action.

1.3 Selection of NSS Volunteers for Special Camp: LPU-NSS Coordinator or Co coordinator of Units or Camp Coordinator is hereby informed to take the necessary care while selecting the volunteers for the 7 days camp. It is fair and proper to give preference to the NSS volunteers, who have contributed their service during the regular activities.

- a) Each camp should consist of Minimum 35 NSS volunteers, local community Youth and 1 Programme Officer and Maximum 100 NSS volunteers. The list of participants along with their willingness may be sent to office of Community Service Cell, Division of Student Affairs along with the proposal.
- b) The LPU-NSS Coordinator or Co coordinator of Units or Camp Coordinator should ensure adequate representation of NSS volunteers from BC/SC/ST communities and Girl volunteers.

1.4 Information to the concerned District Collector about the Camp:

- a) Once the camp dates are finalized, the Programme Officer or Camp Coordinator is required to inform the camping dates requesting the District Collector to extend necessary cooperation of other District Officers such as District Medical & Health Officer, District Agricultural (Extension) Officer, District Field Publicity Officer, District Veterinary Officer, District Youth Welfare Officer and Nehru Yuva Kendra Coordinator, etc., in the district.
- b) The Programme Officer or Camp Coordinator is directed to meet the District Officers in person requesting their cooperation for a successful completion of the camp.
- c) The Programme Officer or Camp Coordinator may involve local voluntary organizations such as Lion/Rotary and other N.G.O's, etc.

1.5 Orientation: LPU-NSS Camp Coordinator is required to give necessary organization to the volunteers about the 7 days programme. To keep up the dignity of University to which they belong and for smooth functioning of the camp rules and regulations should be clearly mentioned in the orientation meeting.

2. DURING SPECIAL CAMP:

- 2.1 The Programme Officer/ Camp Coordinator must follow the day-wise programme scrupulously.
- 2.2 Strict discipline must be adhered by the volunteers during Special Camp.
- 2.3 Activities and Programme must be taken up as per the guidelines and the special camp theme.
- 2.4 The Programme Officer/ Camp Coordinator is directed to maintain a separate attendance register for the 7 days camp which will be verified by the University NSS personnel.
- 2.5 The Programme Officer/ Camp Coordinator is also informed to maintain a Cash Book for the 7 days camp and it should be made available for the programme personnel from the University to go through the same.
- 2.6 The Programme Officer/ Camp Coordinator is directed not to leave the camping place leaving the camp responsibility to the NSS volunteers. In this connection, the Programme Officers/ Camp Coordinator may also take the assistant of other staff members of the University.
- 2.7 It is also important to note that the volunteers should present all the 7 days in the camp. It is imperative as and when any NSS personnel from University visit the camp, they will not down the strength of the campers. Accordingly, the camp grant will be limited. Certificates are also issued only to the members present in the camp (For all Seven Day).

- 2.7.1 The Camp Coordinator must exhibit at least two NSS Banners in a 'standard size' one should be fixed at the camping place and another should be at a conspicuous place in the village.

3. POST CAMP REQUIREMENTS:

Immediately after completion of the camp, the following items should be submitted to the University.

- 3.1 Submission of Accounts and Reports: Camp Coordinator is informed that the Special Camp reports and accounts should be submitted to the Community Service Cell, Division of Student Affairs within 10 days after completion of the camp.
- 3.2 The statement of accounts along with Bills in original should be submitted separately, and the report along with action photos, press clippings, etc., should be submitted in a Book form.
- 3.3 List of NSS volunteers participated in the camp should be sent in the following proforma, in triplicate.

| S.No.    | Name of the Volunteer | Gender | Category    | Contact No | Signature |
|----------|-----------------------|--------|-------------|------------|-----------|
| 1 to 100 |                       |        | OC/BC/SC/ST |            |           |

- 3.4 Participants' experiences should be reviewed and a consolidated report on their experiences should be submitted to the office of community Service Cell, Division of Student Affairs.

4. Administration of the Camp:

- All NSS volunteers participating in the camp should be divided into different groups. Each one will undertake activities according to one's aptitude, educational qualification and skill.
- All the Volunteers should strictly abide by the camp rules and stay in the camp. It is suggested that the following Committees may be formed for running the camp :-
  - Overall Student Camp Coordinator: NSS Coordinator or Co-Coordinator of any Unit may be eligible for the Overall Student Camp Coordinator; all other committees are report to them.
  - Mess Committee: It will look after the food arrangements of the camp. Preparing budgets, tie ups with vendors, seeking quotations and maintaining record of transactions. Drafting of approvals required for the sanctioning of funds. They will have to ensure a sufficient and healthy food for the members and for the visitors during the camp. The quality and quantity of food must be kept up to the standards by the committee members. Surprise and regular checks must be in practice to ensure the smooth functioning of the committee.
  - Programme Committee: To conduct the day-to-day activities of the camp. Exploring the opportunities available inside and outside the campus. Short listing and finalizing the venues with valid reasons. They will have to ensure that all volunteers are treated equally and counter check that the number of volunteers are not repeated for tasks and activities assigned. Approvals regarding duty leaves to the volunteers and non-volunteers will be recorded and managed by program committee.

- Project Committee: To take care of the project work including supply of tools and equipment.
- Cultural Programme Committee: To arrange the cultural programmes in the way that all participants get opportunity to show their skill and talent. Group performance may be given preference over individual performance. Cultural events may include: rallies, promotional lectures, one act play, inspirational videos at socio joints, flash mob, posters, flexes, brochure, pamphlets, logos, sticker's, or any other creative things to mark the presence of NSS whenever and where required. They will have to ensure that prior approval is taken by the program officer before the conduct of any event by the committee.
- General Discipline Committee: It will look after the discipline in the camp.
- Reception and Guest Committee: It will look after the guests in the camp, and make necessary arrangements for their arrival and departure. Proper dress code and drill will be followed by the committee.
- Sponsorship Committee: It will look after the sponsors form inside and outside the campus. Generating funds for the existing and future NSS activities, Formation of plans and policies for vendor's sponsorship so as to ensure a win win situation for both NSS and Vendors. Maintaining a proper record of all vendors and informing them regarding their existence and presence during the commencement of the event.
- Budget Committee:
  - a. It will look after all the purchase/Cash during camp.
  - b. Account keeping by verifying each & every bill before putting up to the head.
  - c. Settle accounts within 2 weeks of concluding of Camp
  - d. To make record of all the consumable & non-consumable articles

NSS Advisory Committee Policy

The NSS Advisory Committee at University Level will be an apex body as far as implementation of NSS at University Level is concerned. LPU-NSS set up an NSS Advisory Committee to advice on programme planning and development under the Chairmanship of the Vice-Chancellor. It will review the NSS activities in the area of the University and ensure allocation of NSS student's strength and review the work done by all the Units.

Composition of University Advisory Committee - NSS

- |                                      |   |                  |
|--------------------------------------|---|------------------|
| 1. Vice Chancellor                   | - | Chairmanship     |
| 2. Head, Division of Student Affairs | - | Member Secretary |
| 3. Programme Officers                | - | Executive Member |
| 4. NSS Volunteer (Max 4 Volunteers)  | - | Members          |
| 5. NSS Alumni (2 Volunteers)         | - | Alumni Member    |

Frequency of meetings

The University Advisory Committee should meet at least twice a year to review, plan and monitor the NSS activities.

Role & Responsibility

This committee should concentrate on the following issues: -

- (a) Review and progress of the NSS during the previous year;
- (b) Formulation of the plans for NSS programmes and activities to be undertaken during the current year;
- (c) Approval of the allocation to be made to the NSS units during the current year;
- (d) Approval of special projects to be undertaken during the year.
- (e) Review / Reallocate the NSS Unit to the Volunteers.
- (f) The outstanding work of the NSS volunteers of the unit should be recognized by awarding special certificates. The work of such volunteers should be brought to the notice of NSS Regional Centre of concerned region.
